The 2020 .eu Web gala, streamed live from Teatro Verdi in Pisa on the 16th of December 2020, featured acts from seventeen-time Grammy award-winner Sting, Miyoko Shida, the Women Orchestra, Marta Orlandelli, and the MM Dance Company. During the event, the Dissemination leader Warrant Hub participated: Isella Vicini, Dissemination Manager, and Sara Attanà, SINTEC website developer, has been awarded by the artist Miyoko Shida with a trophy award and with a 3-month billboard at Brussels airport in 2021.

“This year’s event was very special. The Jury had a very difficult time in coming to a decision, as all of the finalists’ websites were inspiring in their own ways. We are proud of an incredibly successful competition. The 2020 Web Awards gala was full of surprises and stunning performances to honour the nominees, the finalists and the winners,” commented Giovanni Seppia, EURid External Relations Manager.

For this edition of the .eu Web Awards, 202 nominations was submitted with total votes of almost 15 000 during the voting phase that closed on August 5th, 2020; in the category LAURELS, 65 websites were nominated and SINTEC has been the most voted website of the category with 455 votes received from the public.
